

Third-party funding for doctoral candidates and Postdocs

*Dr. Lars Henning & Imke Fries,
AWI Research Support*

Date & Time: 11 December 2018 13:00 – 16:00

12 December 2018 09:00 – 12:00

Location: AWI Bremerhaven, room E-2470

Participation by video conference is possible:

Helgoland: tearoom, List: small conference room
Potsdam: conference room

Language: English

POLMAR credit points: 1

Registration: info.polmar@awi.de

Course content: This course will give you a compact overview of

- Funding opportunities, with a focus on the post-doctoral phase
- Basic rules for Grant Writing

Contents in brief:

- The Research Support Office and its service offers
- Overview of funding programmes, including
 - Own position / Fellowships
 - Travel
 - Research stays abroad
 - Young Researcher Groups
- Funding databases – how to search for funding programmes
- How to write a successful Grant proposal
- AWI-internal procedures for applicants

Target group:

The course is especially intended for beginners who have no or little experience with grant writing:

- Mainly postdoctoral researchers as well as doctoral candidates who want to learn about funding opportunities for the postdoctoral phase.
- Young researchers who want to learn about how to write a good grant proposal.

Please note: The course is not intended for graduate students who are looking for funding opportunities for PhD projects.

More information: imke.fries@awi.de

<http://www.awi.de/ueber-uns/service/forschungsfoerderung.html>